NetSuite is happy to announce the Evolution of the SuiteCloud Developer Exam into two NEW NetSuite Developer Exams and Certifications!

NetSuite Certifications just launched two new certification exams: NetSuite Application Developer and NetSuite Web Services Developer. The two new exams will replace the existing SuiteCloud Developer II exam which will be retired effective February 28, 2023.

Developers can now get certified as NetSuite Application Developer and NetSuite Web Services Developer with these two standalone exams.

The Application Developer exam includes broad coverage of SuiteCloud Platform tools to customize and extend NetSuite, including the most recent version of SuiteScript (2.1) and our latest packaging and deployment technology (SuiteCloud Development Framework).

The Web Services Developer exam covers both SuiteTalk SOAP Web Services and SuiteTalk REST Web Services.

Full SuiteCloud Developer certification will be achieved by earning both these certifications and also the SuiteFoundation certification.

With this change, we will also retire the distinction between SuiteCloud Developer I and SuiteCloud Developer II in future certifications.

Find details about the exam content and study suggestions in the study guides for both exams available on the Certification Program page.

FAQ

If I already have the SuiteCloud Developer II certification, do I need to take the Application Developer and Web Services Developer exams to maintain the certification?

No. If you have achieved the SuiteCloud Developer II certification, you are not required to take the new exams. If you would like to get certified on the latest technology, such as SuiteScript 2.1 and SuiteTalk REST Web Services, consider taking the new certification exams. Remember, each exam counts as a new standalone certification.

If I have already prepared for the current SuiteCloud Developer II certification, can I still take it even after the new exams are available?

Yes, you can still take the current SuiteCloud Developer II certification exam until it is retired effective February 28, 2023.

I have both the SuiteCloud Developer I and II certifications. Have I lost a certification now?

No, you will be able to keep the certifications you earned previously. To keep the SuiteCloud Developer I and II certifications current, just complete the New Release Quiz annually.

How will people know whether I have SuiteScript 1.0 or SuiteScript 2.x (2.0/2.1) knowledge?

- If you achieved the SuiteCloud Developer I certification, you are certified on SuiteScript 1.0 knowledge.
- If you have achieved the SuiteCloud Developer II certification, you are certified on SuiteScript 2.x. knowledge.
- The new Application Developer certification certifies you on SuiteScript 2.x knowledge.
- The SuiteCloud Developer I and SuiteCloud Developer II certifications remain valid certifications even when retired, as long as you keep renewing them.

Dec. 20, 2019 CORRECTION--course will be retired in 10 days

Hello NetSuite Certified Community!

A couple of changes coming quickly for the SuiteCommerce for Developers Certification Exam. As many of you already know, this exam has not kept up with changes to the SuiteCommerce platform. Due to the rapid evolution of the SuiteCommerce product, our efforts have been focused on courseware, rather than the exam.

As a result, we will be retiring the SuiteCommerce for Developers Exam by March 31, 2020. The associated course, SuiteCommerce Advanced for Developers is being retired December 30, 2019. It will not be possible to extend the availability of this course into the new year, so it must be entirely completed by December 30th, THIS YEAR.

We apologize for the short notice on the course availability. This notice is primarily intended for anyone who was already preparing for the existing SuiteCommerce Developer Exam.

However, we DO NOT RECOMMEND either the course nor this particular exam. If you are not already prepared to take this exam, we advise that you wait until next year, when we will begin rolling out alternate paths to prove your expertise on current SuiteCommerce product areas. Stay tuned—we will announce something by SuiteWorld 2020.

FAQ:

Q: What will happen to my existing SuiteCommerce Developer Certification? Should I bother renewing it with the annual quiz?

A: Yes, please renew it this year. If you already have the certification, you may keep it. We will add a clarification next year as to which SuiteCommerce version it pertains to. After that you may decide for yourself whether it is worth continuing to maintain going forward.

Thanks all. Happy Holidays and Happy New Year!

Hello NetSuite Certified Community,

We are getting two questions in high volume in response to the new logos:

"Is there a combined version available?" or "Can I create a combined version for myself?"

The answer to both questions is "No."

The volume of people asking is so high, we will not be responding individually to these questions this week.

We will request Oracle creative team for a solution, but please be aware that these logos are designed carefully, to the point that the length of the dash and the relative size of the letters had been considered, and must conform to Oracle's design standards. You are NOT permitted to modify these logos IN ANY WAY other than relative scaling of the entire logo. If you have created a modified version, please DO

NOT USE IT.

We will post any response we get from the creative team on this. Thank you for your feedback.

Are you ready to become a NetSuite Certified SuiteCloud Developer?

Do you want your knowledge validated and recognized?

Participate in this "Ask-The-Experts" study session, and then take the SuiteCloud Developer Exam! The exam is an updated version where SuiteScript 1.0 questions are replaced with SuiteScript 2.0 questions.

Guided by a NetSuite expert, you examine key subject areas and use cases while reviewing NetSuite features and capabilities.

Study materials cover information related to the test objectives within the seven subject areas of the exam. You are provided a NetSuite demo account containing numerous SuiteScripts (all using SuiteScript 2.0) and workflows (SuiteFlow), along with SuiteTalk code examples in Java and C#.

Lectures, hands-on exercises and best practices discussions will focus on subject areas specific to an updated version of the developer exam available at SuiteWorld, the main differentiation with the current exam objectives being use of SuiteScript 2.0 instead of SuiteScript 1.0:

- SuiteScript 2.0
- SuiteFlow
- SuiteTalk
- SuiteBundler

Additional topics covered during the study session will be driven by the participants' needs and questions. By the end of this course, you will be able to evaluate your readiness to take the SuiteCloud Developer Exam and identify where further study might be needed.
