

Embedded Learning Within NetSuite

NetSuite Guided Learning

As companies incorporate technology solutions to support their evolving business needs, the top priority is training employees to use the tool to its full potential. Problem is, most software training resources are not accessible, convenient, or comprehensive, making them difficult to fluidly incorporate into the user's experience. NetSuite Guided Learning seeks to change that.

Included with every NetSuite instance for every user, NetSuite Guided Learning provides in-app training, so you can quickly ramp up new users and upskill current users to support your business and maximize your investment.
